Dear Pastor,

Driving home from a service recently, I sensed an overwhelming burden about the awful condition of our country. America's spiritual state has never been more deplorable. Families are shattered, churches are compromising, and Christians are worldly and defeated. The devil is having a wonderful time with God's people all across our fine country and it is having a profoundly negative effect on the moral and spiritual climate of our nation. We are in big trouble!

Christians must do something to save our country before it is too late. I am convinced every believer must get serious about preaching the gospel to every community in America. What might happen if there were a mass effort by God's people in Baptist churches to get the gospel into every home? Consider the results if local churches across the nation participated in a special Day of Evangelism to preach the gospel to their community. I believe thousands of souls could be saved through this special day.

Would you join us in a national Day of Evangelism on October 18, 2008? If the 9,000 churches that receive this letter were to participate in this effort, surely there would be thousands of people saved and God's people would rejoice! We must get serious about fulfilling the Great Commission. Some churches, I'm sure, will have a scheduling conflict with this Saturday. In that case, please designate the Saturday before or after as your Day of Evangelism. Also, please write us and tell us of your interest in participating, and any success you have on that day. I believe it will be an encouragement to others to know how many lives are affected by this effort.

Some may ask, "Who is behind this?", or "What is this about?" For that reason I have put together a website to answer pertinent questions about these things. This effort will not be about any church, person, or group. It is about the souls of those that are dying and going to Hell for all eternity. It is also to encourage local churches to organize under the Lord's leading to evangelize their area. The website is www.dayofevangelism.com and you can find other helpful resources and tips to train your people for this special day. Please participate and feel free to contact me for more information at 989-551-7378, or email me at mfoster@dayofevangelism.com. God bless you. We look forward to seeing God do some amazing things on October 18, 2008.

In Christ,

Mike Foster

Recommendations

"I'm happy to recommend the Day of Evangelism organized by Brother Mike Foster for October 18th. I believe this day could result in the salvation of many souls. Brother Foster's heart is that this not be about a man, but about a mission, not about a particular crowd, but about a cause. The cause of course, is getting the Gospel of Christ to people. I believe there are many people in our churches who would respond well to a one day soulwinning effort who might not go soulwinning on a regular basis. I also believe that some of these people may later get involved in our regular soulwinning ministries. Most importantly, I believe that many people will hear the Gospel because of our faithful efforts on this day. Brother Foster has helps in promoting the day and preparing the people for it on his web site; www.dayofevangelism.com. God bless you as you try to reach people for Christ."

"I think it is a great idea to set aside a National Day of Evangelism. Here at Community we emphasize evangelism knowing that that pleases our Saviour. We would certainly join in on a special day set aside for evangelism."

Dr. Doug Jackson; Pastor, Community Baptist Church, Saginaw, MI

"I'm glad for the vision of Mike Foster in organizing this effort in soul winning. Our burden for souls and the standing orders of our Lord's Great Commission to us should be every days priority business. May the Lord bless all who participate with a fruitful harvest."

Dr. Shelton Smith; Editor, Sword of the Lord, Murfreesboro, TN

"The National Day of Evangelism is a great idea. Dr. Bob, Sr., said "It takes evangelistic unction to make orthodoxy function." May the gospel go forth powerfully and many souls come to know the Lord on this special concentrated day of evangelism. "

Dr. Bruce McAllister; Director of Ministerial Training and Extension, Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC

"It is my hope and prayer that there will be a great swelling of enthusiasm for the Day of Evangelism on October 18 between now and that date in soul winning churches across America. Everybody seems to know that interest in personal evangelism has waned among fundamentalists over the past couple of decades, and that our inactivity in this area is at the root of many of our other problems. Also anybody with spiritual eyes can see that the darkness of the world is deepening as the light of evangelism has dimmed. Let us meet the challenge of the situation in the power of the Holy Spirit with prayer meetings and a great day of soul-saving effort. I think the Lord has prompted the leaders of this project to call us to action, and I am with them all the way. Let us all be witnesses for Christ every day, and let us join in especially intensive effort on October 18."
